Dear Aarush Agarwal,

12th September 2025

Subject: Internship Letter (“Internship Letter” or “Letter”)

This is with reference to your application for an internship with PayU Finance India Private Limited (the “Company”) and the subsequent round of interviews/discussions that we had with you. We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter referred to as “You”, “Your” or the “Intern”) an internship in the Finance Team of the Company.

Your internship period shall begin from 17th September 2025, and it will last for a duration of 12 months in the Finance Team of the Company. You will be paid a stipend / honorarium of INR 20000 per month (pro-rated as applicable for Your internship period) during the internship period, which may be amended or modified by the Company, at its discretion. During the internship period, you are required to be present at the Company’s PayU-Gurgaon office or out of such other premises/location/office of the Company, as may be identified by the Company, post discussion with You. Your designated supervisor during the internship will be Senior Lead. (“Supervisor”).

During the internship, You will adhere to the terms and conditions mentioned herein (including Annexure A), and other policies, procedures, guidelines, principles, codes or frameworks, including the privacy policy of the Company or of PayU group (together the “Policies”).

Please note that this offer for internship shall remain open for 2 (two) days from the date of issuance of this Internship Letter. Please print a copy of this Internship Letter, sign it at the place indicated below confirming that You have read, understood and agreed to the terms of this Internship Letter and send back the signed Internship Letter to divya.priya@payufin.com followed by a physical copy of the same. Should You fail to revert with Your acceptance sent in writing to divya.priya@payufin.com before the expiry of 2 (two) days from the date of this Internship Letter, this offer for internship shall stand withdrawn, unless otherwise communicated by the Company in writing.

The internship does not constitute a promise or guarantee of future or continued employment with the Company or any of its affiliates/group entities. Nothing in this Internship Letter should be construed as creating an employment relationship.

We look forward to a fruitful collaboration. For any clarifications, please feel free to contact DivyaPriya S at email divya.priya@payufin.com.

With best wishes,

Annexure A

In addition to the terms/conditions set out above in this Internship Letter, you are also required to comply with and adhere to the following terms and conditions:

1. Nature of Relationship

You understand and agree that there is no expectation or guarantee of employment or consultancy with the Company during or following the completion of the internship and there is no employer-employee or principal-agent relationship being created. You shall perform the obligations and adhere to this Letter Yourself and through no other person or individual, unless consented to in writing by the Company.

Nothing in this Letter shall be deemed to create any association, partnership, joint venture or relationship of principal and agent or master and servant or employer and employee between the Intern and the Company (or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries) or to provide either the Intern or the Company with the right, power or authority, whether express or implied, to create any such duty or obligation on behalf of the other.

2. Intern's Responsibilities: You shall adhere to and comply with the following:

- (a) Adhere to and comply with all terms of this Letter, applicable laws and Policies including but not limited to the Company's working hours and code of conduct;
- (b) Complete assigned projects/mandates to the best of Your ability and within designated timeframes;
- (c) Participate in training sessions, meetings, and other learning opportunities as directed by Your Supervisor or the Company; and
- (d) Regularly report Your progress to the designated Supervisor.

3. Stipend and Benefits

- (a) The Intern will be paid a stipend / honorarium during the internship period as specified in the Internship Letter, subject to any modification or change at the discretion of the Company.
- (b) The Intern shall be responsible and liable to pay for all applicable taxes (including any personal income tax) on any stipend/ honorarium received. The Company shall be entitled to withhold, deduct and realize any and all taxes and other outstanding amounts or dues as may be required to be recovered from the Intern from time to time under applicable laws during the entire term of the internship from the stipend agreed to be paid to the Intern or by way of reimbursement from the Intern.
- (c) The Intern shall not be entitled to reimbursement for any costs or expenses whatsoever incurred in connection with this internship, including but not limited to transportation, meals, communication expenses, equipment, software, professional attire, educational materials, accommodation, or any other out-of-pocket expenses, unless explicitly pre-approved in writing by the designated Supervisor prior to incurring such cost/expense, in which case reimbursement shall be subject to the Company's standard policies and contingent upon submission of original receipts within the timeframe specified by the Company.

- (d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Letter, the Company shall not be liable or responsible to make any payment to the Intern in the event the Intern is in breach or non-compliance of the terms of this Letter or in the reasonable of the opinion of the Company has committed an act of fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

4. Representations, Warranties and Covenants

You represent, warrant and covenant that:

- (a) All information provided in Your application and supporting documents is true, accurate, and complete;
- (b) Your selection for the internship (as contemplated under this Letter) does not breach or conflict with any other agreement, obligation or covenant that You may be subject to;
- (c) You have the capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Letter and perform Your obligations in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (d) You are not bound by or subject to any court order, arrangement or undertaking, which in any way restricts or prohibits You from entering into this Letter or from performing or ensuring performance of Your duties/obligations/warranties hereunder;
- (e) You shall not take up any activity or shall not perform or get involved into any activity/assignment or consultation or take up such office which shall place You in direct conflict with the Company's interest, without the prior written approval of the designated Supervisor; and
- (f) To the extent that the Company provides materials and equipment (such as phones, access cards, computer equipment, tools, ID tags, dongle etc.) in connection with this Letter (the "Equipment"), You acknowledge and agree that such Equipment is owned by the Company, and is provided solely for the purposes of discharging Your duties and obligations towards the Company, as a part of the internship and for no other use. The Equipment is provided to You by the Company only for usage during the term of the internship under Letter and it does not belong to You and shall be immediately returned to the Company upon termination or expiration of this Letter or at any time upon the Company's first demand for the same.

5. Intellectual Property

- (a) "Intellectual Property Rights" shall mean all forms of intellectual property rights subsisting under any law or equity and all analogous rights subsisting under the laws of all jurisdictions and shall include any product or process of the human intellect or labour whether registered or unregistered as patents, trademarks, copyrights, designs or otherwise such as an invention, or derivative works of the same expression or literary/musical creation, unique name, trade secret, business method, database, industrial process, computer program, source code, process, presentation, etc.
- (b) You acknowledge and agree that any Intellectual Property Rights existing in the documents, designs, source code, softwares and any other document/information or material shared with You are owned by the Company and that all such Intellectual Property Rights shall vest and shall continue to be vested with the Company.
- (c) You shall ensure that all the works performed, developed and/or delivered during the internship program shall be original creative efforts of Yourself and shall under no circumstances infringe the rights including Intellectual Property Rights of any third party. It is however clarified that Intellectual Property Rights in any and all works relating to the task performed by You during the internship shall at all times vest with the Company.
- (d) Subject to other clauses in this Letter, nothing contained herein shall authorize You to use, apply, invade or in any manner exploit or infringe the Intellectual Property Right of the Company without prior written consent of the

6. Termination

- (a) The Company may terminate this internship by giving 30 (thirty) days' prior written notice or payment equivalent to 30 (thirty) days stipend (or such shorter period) in lieu of such notice. You may terminate this internship by giving 30 (thirty) days' prior written notice. In the event You wish to terminate this internship with a shorter notice period You will require prior written permission of the Company. Further, in such case the Company will have the right to seek from You an amount equivalent to 30 (thirty) days stipend in lieu of such notice.
- (b) The Company may forthwith terminate the internship under this Letter if:
 - (i) You commit a breach of the terms and conditions of this Letter;
 - (ii) You, in the Company's reasonable opinion, commit any fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct in or during the course of performance of Your obligations hereunder;
 - (iii) You, in the Company's opinion, are in breach of any of the Policies; or
 - (iv) You become unable to perform Your obligations as specified hereunder for a continuous period of 5 (five) working days (other than for such reason approved in writing by the Supervisor or declared holidays by the Company).
- (c) Upon termination or expiry of this Letter for any reasons, You agree and undertake to:
 - (i) immediately hand over to the Company all Confidential Information, Equipment, documents, designs, source code and any other document/information, material, and deliverables and work prepared by You under this Letter, whether complete or in progress; or
 - (ii) immediately hand over all Confidential Information, documents, Equipment, designs, source code and any other document/information or material and facilities provided by the Company for or in connection with the internship under this Letter.
- (d) In case of termination or expiry of this Letter, the rights and obligations of the Company and Intern under Clauses 5 (Intellectual Property Rights), 7 (Confidentiality) and 8 (General Provisions) shall survive such termination or expiry.

7. Confidentiality

- (a) For the purposes of this Letter, “Confidential Information” means all information (whether written, oral or in electronic form) concerning the business, affairs, plans, and customers of the Company which is directly or indirectly given to the Intern by or on behalf of the Company pursuant to this Letter, including the terms of this Letter. For avoidance of doubt, it is hereby clarified that Confidential Information shall also include all information, data, reports, analyses, compilations, studies, or other documents prepared by the Intern or Your representatives containing, reflecting or based, in whole or in part, upon any Confidential Information.
- (b) Confidential Information shall not include information which: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the Intern in breach of this Letter; (b) was lawfully available to the Intern on a non-confidential basis before disclosure to the Intern by or on behalf of the Company; or (c) becomes lawfully available to the Intern from a source other than the Company, provided that such source is not bound by any contractual or legal duty of confidentiality with the Company or any other party with respect to such information.

- (c) The Intern shall: (a) keep all Confidential Information confidential; (b) not disclose any Confidential Information to any other person other than with the prior written consent of the Company or in accordance with Clause 7(e); and (c) not use Confidential Information for any purpose other than the performance of the Intern's obligations under this Letter.
- (d) The Intern may disclose Confidential Information to the extent required by law or by any governmental or regulatory authority or by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction, provided that, to the extent legally permitted, You give the Company as much notice of such disclosure as possible.
- (e) At the expiry or termination of this Letter or at the Company's request, the Intern shall promptly return all the Company's Confidential Information that is in the Intern's possession or control, or shall permanently delete/destroy the same, without retaining any copies thereof, except as may be required by law.

8. General Provisions

(a) Personal Data:

- (i) You hereby give explicit consent to the Company to collect, process, store, and transfer Your personal data, including but not limited to, name, address, contact information, date of birth, government-issued identification numbers, banking information, educational background, performance reviews, compensation details and other data necessary for the establishment, performance, and termination of the internship under this Letter relationship.
- (ii) You acknowledge and agree that the Company may share Your personal data with third-party service providers, including payroll processors, benefits administrators, insurance providers, and other entities as necessary to fulfill the Company's obligations under this Letter and applicable law, including for background verification check purposes.

- (b) Governing Law and Dispute Resolution: This Letter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to this Letter, or the breach, termination, or invalidity thereof, shall be settled before the courts of Delhi which shall have exclusive jurisdiction in this regard.

- (c) Force Majeure: Neither party shall be liable for any failure to perform their respective obligations under this Letter if such failure results from circumstances beyond that party's reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, war, civil unrest, strike, or major disruptions.

- (d) Notices: All notices, requests, or other communications required or permitted to be given under this Letter shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered personally, sent by registered post, or transmitted electronically to the Company or the Intern at the address/details specified in this Letter or to such other address as communicated by the Company.

- (e) Entire Agreement: This Letter constitutes the entire agreement between the Company and Intern relating to its subject matter and supersedes all previous agreements, understandings, and arrangements between them, whether written or oral, in respect of the same.

- (f) Non-Disparagement: You agree to not make any adverse written or oral statement or take any action or fail to take any action, directly or indirectly, which You know or reasonably should know to be disparaging or negative concerning the Company or its officers, employees or management, publicly or otherwise. You further agree to
